

BIRTH CERTIFICATE OF SALAMAN ZALMAN REDER, BORN IN 1888, KLASNO

Jewish Civil Registrar in Klasno. Extract from the registrar of births in Klasno, volume 2 page 9, ordinal number 41.

Salaman Zalman Reder, a male legitimate child was born on June 12, 1888 in Klasno, house #29, to Chaskel Reder, the father, a soap manufacturer residing in Klasno, and his mother Rachel nee Goldstein, a daughter of Nechemiasz, a soap manufacturer in Klasno, and Rela Goldstein.

A midwife Taube Perlman, resident of Wieliczka, helped with the birth.

The circumcision ceremony was performed on June 19th, 1888 by Izrael Dembitzer, a merchant, resident of Wieliczka, and witnessed by Samuel Reder, a merchant, resident of Dabrowa.

Note: This legitimate child's birth was entered into our registrar on the basis of the marriage certificate held in volume 1, page 73, and paragraph 9 for the year 1887.

The agreement of the extract with the original is confirmed by the signature given below.

Illegible signature of the Klasno Registrar

This extract was given on May 8th, 1907 in Klasno