

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE FOR CHASKEL REDER AND RACHL GOLDSTEIN

Jewish Registrar in Wieliczka

THE FIANCE: Chaskel Reder, a bachelor, 26 years and four month old, a soap boiler's apprentice, a longtime resident of Klasno, born in Dabrowa, son of Samuel and Beila Laja Reder, nee Werner, soap boilers in Dabrowa.

THE FIANCEE: Rachl Goldstein, unmarried woman, born in Klasno, a daughter of Nechemjasz and Rela Goldstein, nee Gluck, soap boilers in Klasno, age 21 years and five months, unmarried.

Entered into matrimony on the 14th of June, 1887 in Klasno

Signature and residence of the Rabbi and witnesses: Rabbis assistant Jacob Mandel, ritual slaughterer residing in Klasno; witnesses: Mojzesz Schriber, a shoemaker, and Mojzesz Leib Goldstein, unemployed.

Documents concerning this marriage were saved in this registrar.

We certify that this abstract is in full agreement with the original.

Illegible signature of the Registrar clerk in Wieliczka

Round seal of the Wieliczka Registrar.

Wieliczka, February 3rd, 1921